TENNIS CHAMPION LARNED DEFENDS HIS TITLE WELL.

Defeats Reginald Doherty, the Englishman, Three Sets to One in Match With Singles.

CROWD GOES WILD WITH JOY.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 27.-For the third time in eight years English aspirations for the highest American tennis honors in singles have been dushed when they seemed almost within reach of the persistent foreigners, for to-day William A. Larned of Summit, N. J., successfully defended his title as champion by defeating Reginald Doherty of England, three sets to one. The scores were 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 8-6.

It was a grand game on both sides, but It sapped the vitality of each player until It became a question of endurance, and the American proved to be in better condition. A scorching sun was no insignificant factor in the result, and at the end Doherty, unused to such hot rays, almost collapsed. tor in the result, and at the end Doherty, unused to such hot rays, almost collapsed. It was generally acknowledged that had the day been cool, like those of last week, the battle would have been fought longer, harder and perhaps with a different result. Larned, however, played the game of his life, for Doherty is undoubtedly the strongest player who ever came to America.

The defeat of the Englishman was not only a surprise, but a bitter disappointment to the Doherty brothers. The team just missed capturing the Davis treshy, and now to be beaten for the American championship, when it seemed almost theirs, accentuated their disappointment.

They will not go home empty-handed, however, for the pair are the American champions in doubles, and next year they will return, not only to defend this title, but for another chance at the more important singles championship.

But if the result was desappointing to the English, it set nearly 4,600 loyal Americans, who watched every stroke, almost frantic with joy, and the demonstration which followed the last play, when Doherty sent the ball litto the net, will live for many years in the Englishman was outplayed, probably

INTENSE INTEREST IN THE FUTURITY.

Latest Trials of the Eligibles Discussed With Great Earnestness at Saratoga.

ANTE-POST BOOK OPENED.

Mexican Probably Will Not Start -Keene Entry, Salvable and Skillful, Are Most Generally Favored.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 27.-Over the gaming tables at the clubs, on the spacious bal-conies of the United States, of the Grand Union, in the streets and in the parks, nothing is heard but "Futurity, Futurity." If the interest in New York is anything like as intense as here at the Spa, the three-decker grand stand at Sheepshead Bay will not be able to hold the crowds. Every Saratoga man or woman with the least blt of sporting blood will go down for the great race. This morning the latest trials of the candidates were discussed with great earnestness. The news of Liepsic's sensational work of six furlongs in 1:13%, with 115 pounds up, is regarded as remarkable, though it must be remembered that the track here is at least three parts of a second in six furlongs faster than at Sheepshead Bay.
Lienste is a slashing big colt, with plenty of good racing points, in the stable of John H. Carr. After the work he immediately informed the Littlefields that Wonderly would not be able to ride either of the Haggin eligibles, fir Voorbees and Teddy Mack, as he (Carr) intended to put the boy up on Mexican a Doubtful Starter.

The luck of the turf is strange. The argest holder in thoroughbred stock interests in the world, no less than 282 running horses being in active training in his own and agents' stables, finds himself in the greatest dilemma of the year. To only one representative, Sir Voorheer, is he conceded a remote chance. Mr. Haggin is in a quandary for a jockey, too.

All hands await the final work of tomorrow morning. It is now known that Madden is pinning his faith on Merry Reel. She is not the same filly which run behind first money in the Nursery Stakes at Louis-ville. Mexican is again alling, and is a doubtful starter. If he starts Shea will have the leg up.

R. T. Wisson, Jr., and two well-known
Wall stret operators slept at Healey's stable one night last week to see the coit and have a crucial morning work. Green B. Morris ships Artvis with Fred Littlefield to Sheepshead Bay, while he himself takes Sombrero and Cunard to Buffalo for the Derby. Mrs. L. Curtis, the only woman owner in this year's Futurity, now that "Mr. Roslyn" has ceased to exist, owing to the accrued penalties on Eugenia Burch, will withdraw her filly.

Skillful a Game Colt. Skillful's race yesterday was of the truest and gamest sort. The race proved beyond Skiliful's race yesterday was of the truest and gamest sort. The race proved beyond doubt that Skiliful is a weight-carrier, and a good, stout-hearted thoroughbred. He was cut off twice after making up ground from the start, and yet came on and won in a hard stretch drive—with 126 pounds up. The general feeling in paddock circles favors the Keene entry, with Salvable, the Western colt in John Drake's stable; Skilful and the Whitney and Duryea entry next in order. chase-Lovable in the Last Race. The card at Kinloch to-day looks very hard, bar the Brulare Handleap. The handleap makes that race a gift to Teller. He save Fearful a forty-bound beating when they met. He will give him a 19-pound beating to-day. However, no one who looses its relichaging is sorry to see that struck steeplechasing is sorry to see that sturdy supporter of the sport, John S. Bratton.

Air. Bratton has done a lot for steeple-chasing hereabouts. He got up the Bruiare Curchasing hereabouts. He south win to the card book the will be out for the can lose. Governor boyd will be out for the stuff to-day. His other races go for the cad book. He will be the contender here. Fearful is a good little horse and will be third, unless Terra incognita is as well prepared as he was the day he won over the hurdles. He has speed and rushed his fences that day, but jumped slovenly fashion. He may fall at the big steeple-chase fences to-day, though he has always manned to stay up if he is a bad fencer. He did not fall in the stake at the Fair Grounds, though he jumped badly and though the field was a foot deep in water. It is not any race. In order to make it a race Teller should carry 185, Boyd 145. Fearful 157 and incognita 141-taking him off his hurdle race. Fearful is a small horse and will scarce pack weight well.

If Charles D. was right he would win the first race. He is a 1:41 horse when good. He looked high and unfit hast time out. Invicius has been a good thing twice tately and ran bad races. "Bone Doctor" Roobins, whom everyone thought was dead, has him. He may do to-day. King Barleycon was a good horse two years ago and ran a lair race yesterday. Not good, but good enough to make it all right if he wins to-day at a long price. Mr. Mulkey and Ducila vill go well. Orlandine is far from being it and wants a longer route.

wants a longer route.

On her race the other day Liska looks best in the second. She will be hard to best. Doc Mayer is the horse she has got to best. Buriap and Anzeiger will go well. Ruth L has a chance at the weights.

Dodle S., Bacchus, Hucena and Brewer Dodie S., Bacchus, Hucena and Brewer Schorr seem best in the fourth race. Just how good Dodie is no one can teil. Watch her. She can outrun all of them. If Schorr is good it is a moral chinch for him. Hucena is good and will be close up. Bacchus was a better horse than Foundling in the fastest race of the meeting. On it he looks like a "pipe," but as Trainer Burrows cannot make them run two races alike try as he may, Bacchus probably will not do to-day.

Have a care of Federalist. Trainer Flippen improved Verify wonderfully pesterday and seems to be getting his horses going right. Do not think that they have got Federalist beaten. He is a good horse, has speed and will go a route.

Skillman is ready and good. The weight and the distance in the fifth race will suit him to a hair. On his good race Dutch Carter might do. Kitty G. will go well and is the one they have to beat.

Levable is so good now that she should Lovable is so good now that she should win the last race just as she pleases. Ciales is not doing well for Mr. Gumberts. Yet he ought to be the contender. Palmette has speed, but will stop. There is lots of pace in the race, lait all of the speedy ones save Lovable will stop. If Nobeman is good he has a good abance in mud, though Lovable is a rare muster.

CROWD HISSED THE JUDGES.

From Certain Angles It Appeared That Bunner Won by Half a Length, With Collins Second -Will Shelly Improved.

There was one of those old-time fini-hes in the third race at Kinloch yesterday. It reminded one of the day two years ago when Bummer, W. J. Haker, The Light, Doublet and others finished seven noses apart. W. J. Baker, who was last two jumps from the wire, won.

Bummer was right there again yesterday. He was placed third. From the press stand it seemed that he won by hair a length

Came Into Stretch Abrenst.

The first four cause down the stretch all abreast. If You Daro seemed to be breezing in so easily did Wright sit on him. Collins closed hast. Verify was fading a bit because Scully was not strong enough to handle him in the rough finish.

Collins came fast in the last lifty yards. So did Bummer. Collins was close to If You Dare and seemed to wear him down in the closing strides. Enforcer came with a dush that seemed to hard him first money by a half length. The ludges delayed a long time, then hung our If You Dare's number, with Collins second, and Bummer third.

third at 100 to 1 under Mr. Thompson. The of the race.

Bridwell, Peter Nolan's famous apprentice, broke his inalden soon r than any one expected by winning the first race with Edna Kenner at odds of %) to 1. The mare was sevenith at the stretch head and won easily. Bridwell gave her a good ride, swung close to the rail at the stretch entry instead of going wide, like the field. This saved Edna a lot of ground and she won easily. Mr. Nolan bet $10 on her to show. She was not played to win to any extent.

J. U. Strode cut three good things-Postilion, Henry of Franstamar and Terraline-loose yesterday. He bet on them, too. Not any of them finished as good as 57th. All were beaten off. They looked bad and gaunt as they went to the post, and ran that way.

Virginia Carroll figured Will Shelly to bear Ton comm and Sinner Simon yesterday, "How did you do it, Mr. Carroll?" he was asked.

The way they started to bet on Major Mansir yesterday and the way Star Cotton went up in the betting made people think that Star was a "loh." In his race behind Jessie Jarhoe the previous day he looked like a 1-to-3 shot instead of the 3-to-1 shot he way. Star beat the gate and rounged in front all the way. Mansir could not get up a gallou until they ran a mile. Then he could not came very fast. He is stale and worn and has had too much of it. E. A. the fuss over the If You Dare-Bummer finish came up, he said;

"The people are foelish to contest the decision of judges in a case like that. I know that if the judge is a foot one way or the other from the sighting rod he is liable to make a mistake of two feel in the horses.

When I was in the stand with J. A. Murphy he always left the catching of the second and third horses to me when it came to a finish like that He caught the first horse. He would still try to catch the second and third herses, but often under mistakes of two feet just by moving six inches off the line. Hence he always took my placing instead of his own on the second and third horses. Now, if he could not judge a foot off the line, and with all his sight and chergies bent on catching the finish, how can you or I tell from here, and we just casually interested in ht?

We gave the race to Firate's Daughter, who was on the inside. The crowd gave it to Ida Ledford, who was near the stand. Many spectators said that she wou by a length. As a matter of fact, Pirate's Daughter won by a nice head.

"Stand on the fence any day and watch two horses come to you. As they come up you will always think the inside horse's lending. As they draw nearer the outside. is leading. As they draw nearer the outside horse seems to draw up. As they pass you he seems to be going much faster, though really the inside horse is gaining on him, and is actually coming from behind and going away.

Soing away. "From where you and I stand it did seem that Bummer won by a good margin. Yet, it is plain that he scarce did. He was in front all the way. Then how could he seem to us to be coming at the end? In the last fifty yards it seemed that he gained three lengths. As he led into the stretch, and as he seemed even with the others at the sixteenth pole it is not likely that he fained at all. It is a mere optical illusion. For instance, the spoke of a revolving wheel does not move any faster at the felioe than at the hub. But if the wheel is revolving fast you cannot see the spokes near the felioe. You can, however, see them at the hub, inside horse is the spoke to the hub, the outside one the spoke at the felice."

It is said that Clifford Bonner, the negro apprendice boy who has been riding so well at the local tracks, is anxious to break his centract with Branch Martin, the Little Rock turfman. It was thought that Jim Martin of Martin & Patton, owned the contract. This is not so, Bonner is an Arkansan and aigned an apprentice's contract with Branch Martin. The latter sort of farmed Bonner out to Martin & Patton. The boy gets about $50 a month and found. He could get a nice salary if he could get rid of his contract. His advisers think that Branch Martin, by not personally using the boy, is not entitled to him.

Be that as it may, Jim Martin lost many a race last spring teaching Bonner to tide and giving him experience as a lockey. Now that he can ride a bit and get a few mounts he is anxious to get rid of the man who made him. Owners who would not ride him in the spring when he could not ride him in the spring when he could not ride him in the spring when he could not ride would like to steal him now when Martin has made him at his expense. Such is good-fellowship and fair dealing on the turf. They do not want to teach a boy to ride, but when some other man teaches him they will giadly steal him.

Pittsburg Phil Said to Have Won $60,-000 at Races to One Day. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 27.—George E. Smith, known to race followers as "Pitts-burg Phil," won at least $60,000 yesterday, Chicago and Return, $5. Illinois Central, August 23th and 20th.

is to continue his successful plunging. If he does some of the layers of odds will have to quit business.

The Pittsburg plunger won $21,000 from "Joe" Ullman on Red Knight. He backed the horse with the other bookmakers, too, and won as much more. Then he bet heavily on Skillful, getting odds of 8 to 1.

Both of the races on which Smith plunged were marked by an aftermath of green-eyed envy, it being asserted that whenever Red Knight wins Mr. Smith wins heavily. As for the victory of Skillful, that, too, had its "angles."

When the weights appeared for the handicap the owners of Skillful asked why it was that the handicapper had put seven pounds more on him after his last race, in which he ran third to John A. Scott and Short Hose, and treated both these colts with far more consideration than he did Skillful. But the result proved the handicapper to be right, it no doubt being his opinion that the defeat of the coit in heavy going did not count, and especially as his former owner, J. E. Madden, had said just before the race was run that the youngster could not run in the mud.

The race won by Skillful was the medium of some very heavy plunging, for if Meltonian, who was beaten only by a head by Skillful, had won Frank Farrell would have won a very large sum of money, as he backed James Galway's colt from 20 to 1 to 7 to 1.

Molly Brant, Short Hose and Court Maid also carried very heavy commissions, although many feared to bet on Short Hose because Shea had the mount, and that lab had only just lost a race on Dublin which he would have won if he had got off straight instead of sideways.

Manager Carmody announced last night that William Bruen, formerly starter at Charlesion, S. C., will start at Kinloch on Friiday and Saturday Maurice Cassidy goes to start at Buffalo on Saturday and must leave St. Louis on Thursday night, and Mr. Bruen will finish up the last two days at Kinloch.

He got off well, however, and was never headed.
